- (2) The Interpretation Act 1987 applies to this constitution as if it were an instrument made under the Act.

Note: The Act, Part 4 deals with various matters relating to the management of associations.

Part 2 Members of association

2 Membership generally

- (1) An individual is taken to be a member of the association if:
 - (i) the person applied to be a member under clause 3(1) and the application has been approved, or
 - (ii) the person was a member of Northside Broadcasting Co-operative Limited immediately before the registration of this association.
- (2) A person who is not an individual is not eligible to be a member of the association.
- (3) The committee may establish different types of membership such as life membership, etc. In doing so, the committee shall determine the rights associated with each type of membership, provided that, the committee cannot confer any rights greater than those rights granted to other members by this constitution.

3 Membership applications

- (1) An application by a person to be a member of the association must be:
 - (i) made in writing, and
 - (ii) in the form determined by the committee, and
 - (iii) lodged with the secretary.
- (2) The committee may determine that an application may be made or lodged by email or other electronic means.
- (3) The secretary must refer an application to the committee as soon as practicable after receiving the application.
- (4) The committee must approve or reject the application.
- (5) As soon as practicable after the committee has decided the application, the secretary must:

- (i) give the applicant written notice of the decision, including by email or other electronic means if determined by the committee, and
 - (ii) if the application is approved - inform the applicant that the applicant is required to pay the entrance fee and annual subscription fee payable under clause 5 within 28 days of the day the applicant received the notice.
- (6) The secretary must enter the applicant's name in the register of members as soon as practicable after the applicant pays the entrance fee and annual subscription fee in accordance with subclause (5)(ii).
- (7) The applicant becomes a member once the applicant's name is entered in the register.

4 Register of members

- (1) The secretary must establish and maintain a register of members of the association.
- (2) The register:
- (i) may be in written or electronic form, and
 - (ii) must include, for each member:
 - (a) the member's full name, and
 - (b) a residential, postal or email address, and
 - (c) the date on which the person became a member, and
 - (d) if the person ceases to be a member - the date on which the person ceased to be a member, and
 - (iii) must be kept in New South Wales:
 - (a) at the association's main premises, or
 - (b) if the association has no premises - at the association's official address, and
 - (iv) must be available for inspection, free of charge, by members at a reasonable time, and
 - (v) if kept in electronic form - must be able to be converted to hard copy.
- (3) If the register is kept in electronic form, the requirements in subclause (2)(ii) and (iii) apply as if a reference to the register is a reference to a current hard copy of the register.
- (4) A member may obtain a hard copy of the register, or a part of the register, on payment of a fee of not more than $1, as determined by the committee, for each page copied.
- (5) Information about a member, other than the member's name, must not be made available for inspection if the member requests that the information not be made available.
- (6) A member must not use information about a member obtained from the register to contact or send material to the member, unless:
- (i) the information is used to send the member:
 - (a) a newsletter, or
 - (b) a notice for a meeting or other event relating to the association, or

- (c) other material relating to the association, or
- (ii) it is necessary to comply with a requirement of the Act or the Regulation.

5 Fees and subscriptions

- (1) A person who has been approved for membership must pay an entrance fee of $10 or such other amount as determined by the committee.
- (2) In addition to the entrance fee, a member must also pay an annual subscription at an amount determined by the committee. The committee may determine different types of annual subscription to take into account factors like financial capacity, length of service, etc (e.g. concessional subscription, life member subscription, etc).
- (3) If a person becomes a member on or after 1 July in any calendar year, the annual subscription is payable on becoming a member, and before 1 July in each succeeding calendar year.
- (4) A person's initial membership subscription may be calculated on a pro-rata basis based on the month in the year the member joins.
- (5) Non-members of the association may be invited to pay an annual subscription in order to support the association. These non-members may receive "subscriber" benefits but do not have any of the rights associated with membership of the association, such as voting or standing for election. A non-member subscription is valid for 12 months from the date of payment.

6 Members' liabilities

The liability of a member of the association to contribute to the payment of either of the following is limited to the amount of any outstanding fees for the member under clause 5:

- (a) the debts and liabilities of the association,
- (b) the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of the association.

7 Disciplinary action against members

- (1) A person may make a complaint to the committee that a member of the association has:
 - (i) failed to comply with a provision of this constitution, or
 - (ii) wilfully acted in a way prejudicial to the interests of the association.
- (2) The committee may refuse to deal with a complaint if the committee considers the complaint is trivial, vexatious or lacks substance.
- (3) If the committee decides to deal with the complaint, the committee must:
 - (i) serve notice of the complaint on the member, and
 - (ii) give the member at least 14 days from the day the notice is served on the member within which to make submissions to the committee about the complaint, and
 - (iii) consider any submissions made by the member.
- (4) The committee may, by resolution, expel the member from the association or suspend the member's membership if, after considering the complaint, the committee is satisfied that:

- (i) the facts alleged in the complaint have been proved, and
 - (ii) the expulsion or suspension is warranted.
- (5) If the committee expels or suspends the member, the secretary must, within 7 days of that action being taken, give the member written notice of:
- (i) the action taken, and
 - (ii) the reasons given by the committee for taking the action, and
 - (iii) the member's right of appeal under clause 8.
- (6) The expulsion or suspension does not take effect until the later of the following:
- (i) the day the period within which the member is entitled to exercise the member's right of appeal expires, or
 - (ii) if the member exercises the member's right of appeal within the period - the day the association confirms the resolution under clause 8.

8 Right of appeal against disciplinary action

- (1) A member may appeal against a resolution of the committee under clause 7 by lodging a notice of appeal with the secretary within 7 days of being served notice of the resolution.
- (2) The member may include, with the notice of appeal, a statement of the grounds on which the member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.
- (3) The secretary must notify the committee that the secretary has received a notice of appeal.
- (4) If notified that a notice has been received, the committee must call a general meeting of the association to be held within 28 days of the day the notice was received.
- (5) At the general meeting:
 - (i) no business other than the question of the appeal is to be transacted, and
 - (ii) the member must be given an opportunity to state the member's case orally or in writing, or both, and
 - (iii) the committee must be given the opportunity to state the committee's case orally or in writing, or both, and
 - (iv) the members present must vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
- (6) The appeal is to be determined by a simple majority of votes cast by the members.

9 Resolution of internal disputes

- (1) The following disputes must be referred to a Community Justice Centre within the meaning of the Community Justice Centres Act 1983 for mediation:

- (i) a dispute between 2 or more members of the association, but only if the dispute is between the members in their capacity as members, or
 - (ii) a dispute between 1 or more members and the association.
- (2) If the dispute is not resolved by mediation within 3 months of being referred to the Community Justice Centre, the dispute must be referred to arbitration.
- (3) The Commercial Arbitration Act 2010 applies to a dispute referred to arbitration.

10 Membership entitlements not transferable

A right, privilege or obligation that a person has because the person is a member of the association:

- (a) cannot be transferred to another person, and
- (b) terminates once the person ceases to be a member of the association.

11 Member resignation

- (1) A member of the association may resign from being a member by giving the secretary written notice of at least 1 month, or another period determined by the committee, of the member's intention to resign.
- (2) The member ceases to be a member on the expiration of the notice period.

12 Cessation of membership

A person ceases to be a member of the association if the person:

- (a) dies, or
- (b) resigns from being a member, or
- (c) is expelled from the association, or
- (d) fails to pay the annual subscription fee payable under clause 5(2) within 3 months of the due date.

Part 3 Committee

Division 1 Constitution

13 Functions of committee

Subject to the Act, the Regulation, this constitution and any resolution passed by the association in general meeting, the committee:

- (a) is to control and manage the affairs of the association, and
- (b) may exercise all the functions that may be exercised by the association, other than a function that is required to be exercised by the association in general meeting, and
- (c) has power to do all things that are necessary or convenient to be done for the proper management of the affairs of the association.

14 Composition of committee

- (1) The committee may have up to 9 members, as elected in accordance with clause 15, consisting of a chairperson, a secretary, a treasurer and up to 6 ordinary members.
- (2) Upon the transfer of incorporation, the committee will consist of the individuals who were directors of Northside Broadcasting Co-operative Ltd immediately before the transfer and, subject to the rules 16 and 17, they shall continue to hold office until at least the next annual general meeting

15 Election of committee members

- (1) Any member of the association may be nominated as a candidate for election as an office-bearer or ordinary committee member.
- (2) Candidates who are elected to the committee are elected as ordinary members of the committee. The committee must determine which of its members are to fill the positions of chairperson, secretary and treasurer.
- (3) The nomination must be:
 - (i) made in writing, and
 - (ii) signed by at least 2 members of the association, not including the candidate, and
 - (iii) accompanied by the written consent of the candidate to the nomination, and
 - (iv) given to the secretary at least 7 days before the date fixed for the annual general meeting at which the election is to take place.
- (4) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies:
 - (i) the candidates nominated are taken to be elected, and
 - (ii) a call for further nominations must be made at the meeting.
- (5) A nomination made at the meeting in response to a call for further nominations must be made in the way directed by the member presiding at the meeting.
- (6) Vacancies that remain after a call for further nominations are taken to be casual vacancies.
- (7) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the members nominated are taken to be elected.
- (8) If the number of nominations received is more than the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot must be held at the meeting in the way directed by the committee.

16 Terms of office

- (1) Subject to this constitution, a committee member holds office from the day the member is elected until immediately before the following third annual general meeting.
- (2) At each annual general meeting of the association at least three members of the committee must retire.
- (3) The committee members to retire in any year shall (subject to the provision as to filling casual vacancies) be those who have been longest in office since their last election. As between persons who became committee members on the same day, retirement shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot. In such case, the order for retirement shall be the order in which the names are withdrawn.

- (4) A member is eligible, if otherwise qualified, for re-election.
- (5) There is no limit on the number of consecutive terms for which a committee member may hold office.
- (6) In the event there are members of the committee who were appointed by the committee to fill a casual vacancy, those committee members must retire at the first annual general meeting after their appointment. The retirement of other elected committee members at that meeting need only occur if required to ensure that:
 - (i) at least three members of the committee retire, and
 - (ii) a member does not serve on the committee for more than three consecutive annual terms since their most recent election.

17 Vacancies in office

- (1) A casual vacancy in the office of a committee member arises if the member:
 - (i) dies, or
 - (ii) ceases to be a member of the association, or
 - (iii) resigns from office by written notice given to the secretary, or
 - (iv) is removed from office by the association under this clause, or
 - (v) is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the committee without the consent of the committee, or
 - (vi) becomes an insolvent under administration within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, or
 - (vii) is prohibited from being a director of a company under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, Part 2D.6, or
 - (viii) is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty for which the maximum penalty is imprisonment for at least 3 months, or
 - (ix) becomes a mentally incapacitated person.
- (2) The association in general meeting may, by resolution:
 - (i) remove a committee member from office at any time, and
 - (ii) appoint another member of the association to hold office for the balance of the committee member's term of office.
- (3) A committee member to whom a proposed resolution referred to in subclause (2) relates may:
 - (i) give a written statement, of a reasonable length, to the president or secretary, and
 - (ii) request that the committee send a copy of the statement to each member of the association at least 7 days before the general meeting at which the proposed resolution will be considered.
- (4) If the committee fails to send a copy of a statement received under subclause (3)(i) to each member in accordance with a request made under subclause (3)(ii), the statement must be read aloud by the member presiding at the general meeting at which the proposed resolution will be considered.

- (5) The committee may appoint a member of the association to fill a casual vacancy other than a vacancy arising from the removal from office of a committee member.
- (6) Subject to this constitution, a member appointed to fill a casual vacancy holds office until the next annual general meeting.

18 Secretary

- (1) As soon as practicable after being elected as secretary, the secretary must lodge a notice with the association specifying the secretary's address.
- (2) The secretary must keep minutes of:
 - (i) all elections of committee members, and
 - (ii) the names of committee members present at a meeting of the committee or a general meeting, and
 - (iii) all proceedings at committee meetings and general meetings.
- (3) The minutes must be:
 - (i) kept in written or electronic form, and
 - (ii) for minutes of proceedings at a meeting -signed, in writing or by electronic means, by:
 - (a) the member who presided at the meeting, or
 - (b) the member presiding at the subsequent meeting.

19 Treasurer

The treasurer of the association must ensure—

- (a) all money owed to the association is collected, and
- (b) all payments authorised by the association are made, and
- (c) correct books and accounts are kept showing the financial affairs of the association, including full details of receipts and expenditure relating to the association's activities.

20 Delegation to subcommittees

- (1) The committee may:
 - (i) establish 1 or more subcommittees to assist the committee to exercise the committee's functions, and
 - (ii) appoint 1 or more members of the association to be the members of the subcommittee.
- (2) The committee may delegate to the subcommittee the exercise of the committee's functions specified in the instrument, other than:
 - (i) this power of delegation, or
 - (ii) a duty imposed on the committee by the Act or another law.

Note: The Interpretation Act 1987, section 49 deals with various matters relating to delegations.

Division 2 Procedure

21 Committee meetings

- (1) The committee must meet at least once every 3 months at the place and time determined by the committee.
- (2) Additional meetings of the committee may be called by any committee member.
- (3) The procedure for calling and conducting business at a meeting of a subcommittee is to be as determined by the subcommittee.

Note: The Act, section 30(1) provides that committee meetings may be held as and when the association's constitution requires.

22 Notice of committee meeting

- (1) The secretary must give each committee member oral or written notice of a meeting of the committee at least 48 hours, or another period on which the committee members unanimously agree, before the time the meeting is due to commence.
- (2) The notice must describe the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- (3) The only business that may be transacted at the meeting is:
 - (i) the business described in the notice, and
 - (ii) business that the committee members present at the meeting unanimously agree is urgent business.

23 Quorum

- (1) The quorum for a meeting of the committee is 5 committee members.
- (2) No business may be transacted by the committee unless a quorum is present.
- (3) If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time the meeting commences, the meeting is adjourned:
 - (i) to the same place, and
 - (ii) to the same time of the same day in the following week.
- (4) If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time the adjourned meeting commences, the meeting is dissolved.
- (5) If the number of committee members is less than the number required to constitute a quorum for a committee meeting, the committee members may appoint 1 or more members of the association as committee members to enable the quorum to be constituted.
- (6) A committee member appointed under subclause (5) holds office, subject to this constitution, until the next annual general meeting.
- (7) This clause does not apply to the filling of a casual vacancy to which clause 17 applies.

Note: The Act, section 28A provides for the filling of vacancies on the committee to constitute a quorum.

24 Presiding committee member

- (1) The chairperson shall preside at a meeting of the committee. In the event that the chairperson is absent, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside at the meeting.
- (2) The member presiding at the meeting has:
 - (i) a deliberative vote, and
 - (ii) in the event of an equality of votes - a second or casting vote.

25 Voting

A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the committee or a subcommittee at which a quorum is present is the decision of the committee or subcommittee.

26 Acts valid despite vacancies or defects

- (1) Subject to clause 23(1), the committee may act despite there being a casual vacancy in the office of a committee member.
- (2) An act done by a committee or subcommittee is not invalidated because of a defect relating to the qualifications or appointment of a member of the committee or subcommittee.

27 Transaction of business outside meetings or by telephone or other means

- (1) The committee may transact its business by the circulation of papers, including by electronic means, among all committee members.
- (2) If the committee transacts business by the circulation of papers, a written resolution, approved in writing by a majority of committee members, is taken to be a decision of the committee made at a meeting of the committee.
- (3) The committee may transact its business at a meeting at which 1 or more committee members participate by telephone or other electronic means, provided a member who speaks on a matter can be heard by the other members.
- (4) The member presiding at the meeting and each other member have the same voting rights as they would have at an ordinary meeting of the committee for the purposes of:
 - (i) the approval of a resolution under subclause (2), or
 - (ii) a meeting held in accordance with subclause (3).
- (5) A resolution approved under subclause (2) must be recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the committee.

Note: The Act, section 30(2) and (3) contains requirements relating to meetings held at 2 or more venues using technology.

Part 4 General meetings of association

28 Annual general meetings

- (1) The association must hold annual general meetings within:

- (i) 6 months of the last day of the association's financial year, or
 - (ii) the later period allowed or prescribed in accordance with the Act, section 37(2)(b).
- (2) Subject to the Act and subclauses (1), the annual general meeting is to be held at the place and time determined by the committee.
- (3) The business that may be transacted at an annual general meeting includes the following:
 - (i) confirming the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and any special general meetings held since the previous annual general meeting,
 - (ii) receiving reports from the committee on the association's activities during the previous financial year,
 - (iii) electing at least three ordinary committee members,
 - (iv) receiving and considering financial statements or reports required to be submitted to members of the association under the Act.

Note: The Act, section 37(1) and (2) provides for when annual general meetings must be held.

29 Special general meetings

- (1) The committee may call a special general meeting whenever the committee thinks fit.
- (2) The committee must call a special general meeting if the committee receives a request made by at least 5% of the total number of members.
- (3) The request:
 - (i) must be in writing, and
 - (ii) must state the purpose of the meeting, and
 - (iii) must be signed by the members making the request, and
 - (iv) may consist of more than 1 document in a similar form signed by 1 or more members, and
 - (v) must be lodged with the secretary, and
 - (vi) may be in electronic form and signed and lodged by electronic means.
- (4) If the committee fails to call a special general meeting within 1 month of the request being lodged, 1 or more of the members who made the request may call a special general meeting to be held within 3 months of the date the request was lodged.
- (5) A special general meeting held under subclause (4) must be conducted, as far as practicable, in the same way as a general meeting called by the committee.

30 Notice of general meeting

- (1) The secretary must give each member notice of a general meeting:
 - (i) if a matter to be determined at the meeting requires a special resolution - at least 21 days before the meeting, or
 - (ii) otherwise - at least 14 days before the meeting.

- (2) The notice must specify:
 - (i) the place and time at which the meeting will be held, and
 - (ii) the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting, and
 - (iii) if a matter to be determined at the meeting requires a special resolution - that a special resolution will be proposed, and
 - (iv) for an annual general meeting - that the meeting to be held is an annual general meeting.
- (3) The only business that may be transacted at the meeting is:
 - (i) the business specified in the notice, and
 - (ii) for an annual general meeting - business referred to in clause 28(4).
- (4) A member may give written notice to the secretary of business the member wishes to raise at a general meeting.
- (5) If the secretary receives a notice under subclause (4), the secretary must specify the nature of the business in the next notice calling a general meeting.

31 Quorum

- (1) The quorum for a general meeting is 20 members of the association entitled to vote under this constitution.
- (2) No business may be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present.
- (3) If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time the meeting commences, the meeting:
 - (i) if called on the request of members - is dissolved, or
 - (ii) otherwise - is adjourned:
 - (a) to the same time of the same day in the following week, and
 - (b) to the same place, unless another place is specified by the member presiding at the meeting at the time of the adjournment or in a written notice given to members at least 1 day before the adjourned meeting.
- (4) If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time an adjourned meeting commences, but there are at least 10 members present, the members present constitute a quorum.

32 Adjourned meetings

- (1) The member presiding at a general meeting may, with the consent of the majority of the members present, adjourn the meeting to another time and place.
- (2) The only business that may be transacted at the adjourned meeting is the business remaining from the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- (3) If a meeting is adjourned for at least 14 days, the secretary must give each member oral or written notice, at least 1 day before the adjourned meeting, of:
 - (i) the time and place at which the adjourned meeting will be held, and
 - (ii) the nature of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting.

33 Presiding member

- (1) The chairperson shall preside at a general meeting. In the event that the chairperson is absent, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside at the meeting
- (2) The member presiding at the meeting has:
 - (i) a deliberative vote, and
 - (ii) in the event of an equality of votes - a second or casting vote.

34 Voting

- (1) A member is not entitled to vote at a general meeting unless the member:
 - (i) is at least 18 years of age, and
 - (ii) has paid all money owed by the member to the association.
- (2) Each member has 1 vote, except as provided by clause 33(2)(ii).
- (3) A question raised at the meeting must be decided by:
 - (i) a show of hands, or
 - (ii) if clause 36 applies - an appropriate method as determined by the committee, or
 - (iii) a written ballot, but only if:
 - (a) the member presiding at the meeting moves that the question be decided by ballot, or
 - (b) at least 5 members agree the question should be determined by ballot.
- (4) If a question is decided using a method referred to in subclause (3)(i) or (ii), either of the following is sufficient evidence that a resolution has been carried, whether unanimously or by a majority, or lost, using the method:
 - (i) a declaration by the member presiding at the meeting,
 - (ii) an entry in the association's minute book.
- (5) A written ballot must be conducted in accordance with the directions of the member presiding.
- (6) A member can appoint another member as proxy to vote on their behalf at a general meeting as provided for in clause 35.
